Darwin and the Future of Faith

6:30 p.m. in Reidy Friendship Hall

Darwin's Challenge and Gift to Theology

with Paul Dinter

Popular religion in America has responded to Darwinism by rejecting it, ignoring it, or re-animizing spirituality and bringing back the Druids. Are there other options? Can post-Darwinian religious thought about the realm of nature bring added value to how we calculate our debt to the future?

Paul Dinter, Ph.D. is author of Beyond Naïve Belief (1994) and The Other Side of the Altar (2003).

Reception at 6:30 p.m.; presentation at 7 p.m.

Saturday, January 31

9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary
Workshop: Grief in Children and Youth
with Patricia Nachman

2:00 p.m. at the Museum of the City of New York
Women's Alliance Museum Trip: Docent-Led Tour of Paris/New York: Design Fashion Culture 1925-1940

This exhibit explores the period between the world wars, when Paris, the capital of 19th-Century refinement, and New York, the upstart challenger representing 20th-Century dynamism, were vying for leadership in the fields of architecture, design and fashion. Through drawings, furnishings, decorative art objects, photographs and costumes, the exhibition examines styles from Art Deco to Neo-romanticism and features legendary figures such as Helena Rubinstein, Chanel, Dali and Josephine Baker. Price is $10 for seniors, and $14 for adults. Please let Maureen Marwick know if you are planning to attend at maureenmarwick@aol.com or (212) 249-0171. Please note the corrected date.
